SUPER HEROES

MULTI-ARTISTS DIGITAL EXHIBITION

Power. It's what everyone needs to become a hero. A superpower is what every superhero aspires to have in order to stand out. In these unprecedented times we have all elucidated our very own true powers.

Superheroes are imaginary but for some reason we continue to believe in them ... Why ? Because we humans need a saviour. Today, more than ever, we need art to assist us in imagining what could make our society better. This is what this exhibition is all about. The fascination with these characters can help bring joy and hope into our living and working spaces. While doctors can save our bodies during this global crisis, superheroes might help save our wandering minds.
